

English I CP Criteria

REQUIRED READING:

1. The Outsiders - S.E. Hinton

Ponyboy Curtis is the narrator of this story, and it is through his eyes that the events unfold. Ponyboy takes the reader through a two-week period that will shape the rest of his life. No adults figure prominently in this novel, because Pony and his two brothers are living on their own as a result of their parents being recently killed in an automobile accident. This story (which was written by a teen and focuses only on teens) was seen as the first novel that portrayed teenagers as teenagers saw themselves, yet it touches every adult who reads it because the emotions and struggles the characters face are truly universal.
